WORLD SERVICE MEDAL

Kiwanis International named Col. Donald Gray Heppner Jr., M.D. as its 2009 World Service Medal recipient. Heppner, deputy commander of the Walter Reed Army Institute of Research (WRAIR), was honored for his critical role in the development of a promising vaccine against malaria, one of the world’s most devastating diseases of children. The Kiwanis World Service Medal, established in 1985, recognizes individuals who devote a significant part of their lives to meeting the needs of others.

ROBERT P. CONNELLY MEDAL OF HEROISM

The Kiwanis International Foundation awarded its Robert P. Connelly Medal of Heroism to Ryan Jorgenson of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, USA, who saved the life of a teenager, paralyzed from the waist down, from drowning after a wave swept him off his family’s boat.

KIWANIS PURSING ITS NEXT WORLDWIDE SERVICE PROJECT

Kiwanis International, in 1994, made a pledge to help protect children from the scourge of Iodine Deficiency Disorders in its first Worldwide Service Project. Now, with the majority of the world’s children protected against IDD, Kiwanis is inviting organizations, institutions and individuals to propose a project to become the global service organization’s second worldwide service initiative. 2009-10 BOARD COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS

The list of 2009-10 Board Committee assignments is attached.

2009-10 BOARD COUNSELOR DISTRICT ASSIGNMENTS

The list of 2009-10 Board Counselor district assignments is attached. The 2009-10 governors and district secretaries met with their assigned Board Counselor after the International Convention in Nashville on June 27.

GOVERNORS, if your district requested a Board Counselor, you will find in a separate mailing for the Board of Trustees so you may contact the new Board Counselor to make arrangements for the visit to your district. A biography and photograph of the new Board Counselor is also enclosed.

KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL BOARD MEMBERS will find enclosed a packet of information on each district you have been assigned to counsel.

RESPONSIBILITY OF DISTRICT AND BOARD COUNSELOR EXPENSES

GOVERNORS, GOVERNORS-ELECT, and DISTRICT SECRETARIES, please note that in the past we have received questions regarding the district's responsibility toward expenses for a Board Counselor to attend the district convention.

Kiwanis International Board Procedure 107 G (Expenses) states: "The transportation expense for the Counselor to attend district functions shall be borne by Kiwanis International, up to a limit of three lowest available airfares per Board member per year. The district should bear the cost of housing, meals, and other expenses related to the Counselor's responsibilities. (5/93) (6/08)

We hope this will clear up any questions; however, please let me know if you still are unsure of anything regarding this matter.
